

Biography

Prof. Faruque-Uz-Zaman Chowdhury obtained his BSc (Honors) degree in Physics and MSc in Physics from Dhaka University. He was conferred MPhil on Condensed Matter Physics from Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology and after completing his MPhil he completed PhD degree from the same University.

He has supervised a good number of MPhil and PhD students. He has published research works in International reputed journals.

He is a Fellow of Bangladesh Physical Society and Member of Bangladesh Association for the Advancement of Science. He held positions in various leading academic institutes like Dhaka University of Engineering and Technology, Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman Maritime University, etc. He is presently working as Vice Chancellor at Hamdard University Bangladesh.